MCC moots new plan to collect water bill dues

- Interest will be 'kept in abeyance' for six months if pending bills are paid at one go by consumers
- There will be no compound interest or additional interest on due amount for domestic connections

In-Charge Mayor Sunanda Palanetra addressing a press meet in city this morning as MCC Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy and others look on.

Mysuru, July 12 (MTY&BCT)- The cash-strapped Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) has come up with a new plan to collect pending water bill dues that have reached a whopping Rs. 220 crore. As per the scheme, if the bills are paid in one go, the interest on the amount will be kept in abeyance (baddi nischalathe in Kannada) for six months and compound interest and additional interest will not be levied on that amount.

The State Government is yet to take a decision on waiving the interest levied on the water bills. Addressing a press conference at MCC Office this morning, In-Charge Mayor Sunanda Palanetra said that the MCC has a total of 1,80,000 water connections. Of that 40,000 are illegal connections and over 12,000 have faulty meters.

"These 52,000 connections are burdening the MCC and steps are being taken to regularise the connections and special drives have been conducted in the past asking residents to rectify faulty meters," she said.

While 270 million litres of water is supplied to the residents of Mysuru city daily, only 160 million litres are accounted for, while the remaining water is being used through illegal connections.

CM begins two-day flood damage assessment tour from Kodagu

CM Basavaraj Bommai accompanied by MP Pratap Simha, MLA Appachu Ranjan, Kodagu District Minister B.C. Nagesh and others inspecting a damaged house at Manjunathanagar in Madikeri this morning.

Madikeri / Mysuru, July 12 (RKB, PS, DM & BCT)- Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai began his two-day, four-district tour this morning to assess the flood damage and provide relief measures.

He arrived at the Mysore Airport on a special flight this morning and travelled by road to Madikeri via Kushalnagar. Accompanied by Revenue Minister R. Ashoka, Energy Minister V. Sunil Kumar and Kodagu District Minister B.C. Nagesh, the CM held a high-level meeting with district officials at the DC Office.

MP Pratap Simha, MLAs M.P. Appachu Ranjan and K.G. Bopaiah and MLC Suja Kushalappa, Deputy Commissioner Dr. B.C. Satish were also part of the meeting that was in progress when we went to press.

Earlier, the CM visited the flood-hit Manjunathanagar in Madikeri and inspected a house that collapsed. The CM released a cheque for Rs. 95,000 to Gopal, the owner of the house.

After the meeting, the CM is expected to interact with the people who have been provided food and shelter at Koynadu Ganapathi Temple Hall. He is also expected to visit Chembu village in Madikeri Taluk where a couple of quakes have been reported. The CM will later proceed towards Mangaluru and will visit Udupi and Karwar tomorrow.

'State prepared to tackle floods'

Earlier, speaking to reporters at the Mysore Airport, Bommai said that the entire Government machinery is on the job of tackling floods and other natural disasters caused by torrential rains. He maintained that rescue, relief and rehabilitation operations in areas affected by natural calamities are on in full swing.

"The survey to assess loss of lives, livestock, livelihood and damages caused by floods, landslides, landslips, tremors, earthquakes, sea erosion etc., is almost complete. There is no dearth of funds under NDRM (National Disaster Response Management)," he claimed.

Two forthcoming Ashada Fridays and Vardhanti

Police 'emergency' pass facility to Chamundi Hill withdrawn

Mysuru, July 12 (BCT)- City Police Commissioner Dr. Chandragupta has withdrawn the passes issued by the Police for devotees to access Chamundeshwari Temple atop Chamundi Hill on Ashada Fridays and Chamundeshwari Vardhanti.

The Police had banned vehicles atop Chamundi Hill on Ashada Fridays and Chamundeshwari Vardhanti and had asked devotees to make use of the free KSRTC bus service from the Lalitha Mahal Helipad to reach the Temple. However, to permit certain emergency services, the Police had issued passes.

Though the passes were issued only for emergency services, hundreds of vehicles landed on top of the Hill using the 'emergency pass' facility during the last two Ashada Fridays (July 1 and July 8) leading to chaos. This resulted in arguments between pass-holders and Police and also led to traffic jams, despite ban on private vehicles.

In a communication last evening, the City Police Commissioner stated that the Police will not issue any passes for the Ashada Fridays (July 15 and July 22) and also for Chamundeshwari Vardhanti on July 20. Passes that have been already issued have also been cancelled.

The communication stated that the decision had been taken to prevent vehicular traffic from posing a hindrance to the visit of devotees. Devotees have been asked to make use of the city bus services (paid) or the free KSRTC shuttle services organised by the Chamundeshwari Temple Management Committee.

They can board the buses from the Lalitha Mahal Helipad by standing in the specified queues and have darshan of the Goddess atop the Hill, the communication added.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The reflection of the sun in a vessel of water is dependent on the status of the water. If the water is still, the image is also still. If the water is disturbed, then the image also shakes. If the water is turbid, then the image is also hazy and unclear. All these different states of water have no effect on the sun whatsoever. The sun remains as it always is — effulgent and clear. The state of the reflected image depends upon the state of the reflecting medium — water.

Similarly with the human consciousness. Even when the mind is filled with evil and negative thoughts, the indwelling divinity - the soul remains unaffected. It is man's thoughts that are either positive or negative. This is the pithy explanation by revered Swami Chinmayananda for a verse in the Gnana Yoga Chapter of the Bhagavadgita. The soul or 'Atman' in philosophical parlance is always free, unblemished, still and the witness to all of man's actions.

In everyday usage, we say 'he is by nature evil and crooked'. It is not man who is evil by nature, because man's innate nature is divine and blissful. It is his thoughts that make him evil, dishonest, arrogant, egoistic and vain. We mistakenly ascribe the wrongful mental aberrations to the inner soul which is always pure and unsullied. When we sit in the train and travel, we are actually motionless. It is the train that is moving. But we ascribe the motion of the train to our bodies, which by itself is sitting still. Understanding this subtle difference between our innate nature and our external thought processes and behavioural characteristics is vital from the standpoint of cultivating positive thoughts which in turn positively impact our attitudes and behaviour.

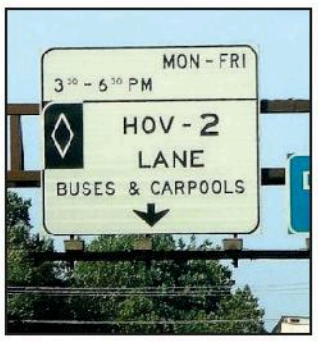
Co., under fire as its ice-cream doesn't melt

Beijing: A Chinese premium ice-cream company has sparked controversy on social media because its products don't melt even when kept at high temperatures for long periods of time.

Last week, the Chinese ice cream company known for its high-quality products, went viral on social media, after someone posted photos and videos of an ice cream next to a thermometer that showed 31 degrees Celsius. The original poster claimed that the frozen treat had been kept at that temperature for around an hour and a half, but it had not melted one bit.

The post got a lot of attention and inspired other people to conduct their own experiments, including taking an open flame to the ice cream to see if it melts.

Pregnant woman ticketed: Says foetus is passenger



Texas: A pregnant woman ticketed for driving in a high-occupancy vehicle lane in Texas says her foetus should count as a second passenger, citing the recent Supreme Court ruling.

Brandy Bottone of Plano, Texas, a suburb of Dallas, was driving in the HOV lane on U.S. Hwy. 75 on June 29 when she was pulled over after passing a Dallas County Sheriff Department's checkpoint.

When law enforcement asked her if anyone else was in the car, Bottone responded that there was and pointed to her stomach. Bottone said the deputies told her that the law required there to be two people outside of the body to drive in the HOV lane.

Texas penal code defines an "individual" as a "human being who is alive including an unborn child at every stage of gestation." However, the Texas transportation code does not recognize that distinction.

Kudos to K.R. Hospital staff

Sir,

Recently, I took my wife for cataract surgery at K.R. Hospital after coming to know of the expensive cost in private hospitals.

There was a mad rush in the hospital. To my astonishment, the OPD slip generating staff and the billing staff were discharging their duties very efficiently.

The security and sub-staff regulated the crowd in such a way that we were able to reach the doctor smoothly.

The cleaning staff, technicians, nursing staff at Ophthalmology Department were punctual and service-minded.

Dr. Satish, Professor and HoD, Ophthalmology, was very courteous to the needs of all the patients irrespective of their financial and social status. He was friendly with every patient and ensured treatment to all.

The Department is equipped with modern instruments and a team of excellent young and service-minded staff.

Kudos to K.R. Hospital authorities and staff concerned for this excellent service to people.

Five new elephants in this year's Dasara jumbo squad

Forest officials begin process to select successor for Golden Howdah carrying Abhimanyu

Mysuru, July 12 (MTY&KS)- The process to select the successor for Golden Howdah carrying Abhimanyu has begun and the Forest Department officials have decided to bring in five new elephants for this year's Dasara Jumbo squad. The successor of Abhimanyu will be carrying the 750 kg weighing Golden Howdah during the 'Jumboo Savari' after three years.

The Forest Department has the responsibility to strengthen the Dasara jumbo squad for Dasara Mahotsava in future. As the first step, the Forest Department has begun its quest for the same. However, the decision by the Forest Department would be known only after July 25.

There is no alternate elephant for Abhimanyu

From the early days, an alternate elephant was being trained along with the Golden Howdah carrying elephant and used to be decorated to take part in the 'Jumboo Savari.'

When Drona was carrying the Golden Howdah, Balarama was trained, when Balarama was carrying the Golden Howdah, Arjuna was trained and during Arjuna's tenure, Abhimanyu was trained as the alternate elephant. But now, no elephant has been identified to be trained along with Abhimanyu.

It is the jumbos which add colour to Dasara Procession and a few had raised objections over the usage of elephants in 'Jumboo Savari.' Since it is a tradition for elephants to take part in Dasara, those who had objected became silent and the Supreme Court, after collecting the opinions of veterinarians and experts, gave a green signal but with an order of not to put weight on elephants aged 60 years and above, which is being strictly followed.

DCF Dr. V. Karikalan

Normally, elephants weigh from 4,200 to 5,800 kg weight and have the capacity to carry about 1,000 kg weight. But they need training to move between crowds and get used to sound and noise. For the elephant to carry the 750 kg weighing Golden Howdah, the back of the elephant should be level, should have slender tusks, should look majestic and only if the elephant has all these qualities, it would be selected and provided training.

Five new elephants this year

Speaking to SOM, Deputy Conservator of Forests (DCF) Dr. V. Karikalan said that for this year's Dasara festivities which will be held in a grand manner, 15 elephants should be brought.

The first batch of Dasara Jumbos should be brought from various elephant camps to Mysuru 55 days before the commencement of Dasara festivities and should be trained to familiarise them 'Jumboo Savari' route from Mysore Palace to Bannimantap.

Weight carrying exercise will also be taken up and the weight will be increased gradually during the training to prepare them for the grand finale. This apart, to get the Dasara jumbo squad acclimatised to sound, canon firing drill will be held in their presence along with the horses from the Mounted Police battalion. Out of 15 elephants, which will be brought this year, five are new elephants, the DCF said.

He further said that due to outbreak of COVID pandemic, only five elephants were brought in the last two years and the 'Jumboo Savarai' was limited to the Palace premises. "As it has been decided to celebrate Dasara in a grand manner this year, 15 elephants will be brought to Mysuru and will be given training," the DCF added.

Over 115 elephants in camps

There are more than 115 elephants that are housed in various elephant camps. Prominent elephants are brought from elephant cams in Thithimathi in Nagarahole and surrounding elephant camps like Dubare Elephant Camp in Kodagu and Rampura Elephant Camp in Bandipur Tiger Reserve.

"The health check-up of elephants will begin from July 15 and a list of elephants will be prepared. Selection process will be completed by July 30 and selected elephants will be brought to Mysuru in batches from the first week of August," he explained.

Milestones in giving a gift of sight to the poor

▶ K.R. Hospital Ophthalmology wing performs 40 cataract surgeries daily; over 5,000 annually

▶ State-of-the-art equipment worth Rs. 2.6 crore imported from Switzerland, Finland, Germany

Mysuru, July 12 (RK&BCT)- At a time when many private eye hospitals are offering best services to patients with vision problems in Mysuru, the Ophthalmology Department at State-run K.R. Hospital is also competing with them in providing state-of-the-art facilities for patients who mostly come from poor and middle-class families.

On average, over 40 cataract surgeries are performed daily and over 5,000 surgeries are performed annually. Notably, a majority of the daily surgeries are performed free of cost by phacoemulsification plus foldable intraocular lens implantation which costs around Rs. 30,000 or more outside.

Every day, over 300 to 400 outpatients are examined and referred to surgeries based on their diagnosis. Other surgeries performed for free include corneal transplant, trabeculectomy, dacryocystorhinostomy/ dacryocystectomy, pterygium excision, and autografting oculoplastic and squint surgeries.

There are qualified doctors who provide specialised services including cataract surgery — phacoemulsification cataract surgery and manual SICS plus IOL implantation, cornea and corneal transplant surgery, glaucoma services and retinal services, both surgical and medical.

Dr. K. Satish, Head of Ophthalmology Department at K.R. Hospital, examining a patient. Picture right shows Dr. Sandhya Hegde attending to a patient.

Advanced imported equipment

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Professor and Head of Ophthalmology Department Dr. K. Satish said that they had procured many advanced machines like the Oertli posterior vitrectomy and phoco machine from Switzerland costing about Rs. 50 lakh used for retinal surgeries, Nd YAG laser capsulotomy from Carl Zeiss, Germany, that costs Rs. 20 lakh used for posterior capsulotomy and iridotomy, Humphrey field analyser from Carl Zeiss, Germany, costing Rs. 20 lakh used for glaucoma evaluation.

This apart, an operating microscope with XY coupling and HD camera has been procured from Carl Zeiss, Germany, costing Rs. 20 lakh for performing all surgeries, and two digital tonometers worth Rs. 5 lakh have been procured from Icare, Finland, for glaucoma evaluation and Class 'B' autoclave 85-litre capacity has been procured worth Rs. 7 lakh.

Other equipment that has been recently commissioned at the Department includes two Zeiss operating microscopes worth Rs. 18 lakh each, a Zeiss phaco machine worth Rs. 15 lakh, an AMO phaco machine from the USA worth Rs. 14 lakh that has been donated by Bharatiya Reserve Bank Note Mudran Private Ltd., OCT worth Rs. 34 lakh, Fundus camera worth Rs. 18 lakh, slit lamp laser delivery system worth Rs. 17 lakh and a slit lamp with imaging worth Rs. 11 lakh, he added.

Other doctors serving in the Department are Associate Professors Dr. D.N. Prakash, Dr. Madhusudhan, Dr. R. Raghavendra, Dr. Shubhratha S.Hegde, Assistant Professors Dr. R. Swati, Dr. Sandhya Dharwadkar and Dr. Madhuri Parande.

Though the Department is offering the best services, several vacancies for retired doctors, technicians, nurses and D-Group employees have not been filled and as such, there is increased pressure on the existing staff. "If the Government fills up the vacancies, we can perform at optimum level without any issues," Dr. Satish added.

Angels at work again: Enabling Ganesh to go to school again

Ten years ago on one Wednesday, 13th June, 2012, Star of Mysore had made an appeal along with Rotary Mysore to our kind and philanthropist readers to contribute their mite to financially help baby H.C. Ganesh, then one-year-eight-month-old, who was born with congenital loss of hearing and as a consequence, he was unable to speak, a child of speech and hearing disability. When his parents, in despair, approached doctors, they opined that the child would be able to speak if his hearing faculty is enabled.

The doctors also advised the child's parents to go for the only remedy available which is known as Cochlear Implantation with a surgical procedure. When an estimation was taken for the cochlear aid and the surgical procedure and also for the speech and hearing therapies thereafter, the cost came to about Rs. 8 lakh.

Star of Mysore and Rotary Mysore were delighted that by 19th of that month, that is in six days, we were able to collect a little more than what was required from the generous and compassionate readers of Star of Mysore. Child's parents too raised about Rs. 2 lakh. The excess amount was utilised for the physiotherapy of the child. The parents of the child were poor with only the husband working as a driver of a pick-up van.

As a result of cochlear implantation surgery and therapies, the child soon began to hear and learnt gradually to speak. Later, the child was admitted to the BSS Convent in Nanjangud and he is now studying in 5th standard.

Unfortunately, the cochlear aid had stopped functioning since a month and as a result, now 12-year-old Ganesh is unable to go to school. When his parents approached the doctors for advice and guidance, they were told that upgradation of the cochlear aid is required with Naida CI M90 processor and it would cost Rs. 5,58,600.

Not having so much of money, the parents once again approached me for assistance and guidance. I did not want to make an appeal for help, as in 2012, because it involves lot of managerial work. So the first person, I thought, would help was our MP Mr. Pratap Simha. His Personal Assistant informed me that the State Government would release Rs. 1 lakh in the next 10 days.

Ganesh as an infant.

Ganesh all set to go to school.

Ganesh now aged 12, 5th standard.

Well, the real Angels at work are people like Dr. Jagannath Shenoy, Mr. Sam Cherian and Dr. S.N. Mothi, NOT K.B. Ganapathy and Vasudev Bhat. We are only foot-soldiers of these Guardian Angels.

While it is a hope, I was advised by my friend to individually approach the philanthropists I know in city. I realised that it might take some time to raise the fund in this manner while Ganesh would remain a school dropout and also disabled.

However, I decided to follow this path to raise the required money. The first person who came to my mind to approach was a well-known philanthropist of our city, Dr. Jagannath Shenoy, who often wishes to be anonymous about what he gives. On June 15, I met him personally and sought his help to help this boy Ganesh. After hearing me very patiently, he said in a soft and gentle voice that he would finance the amount required and I should send him the Bank details.

Let us hope once again, life will come alive to Ganesh, sooner than what I thought it would take and he will be back to the class like other students of the school.

It might interest our readers to know that in just six days, 148 persons responded and an amount of Rs. 5,98,178 was collected. Rotary West gave the highest amount of Rs. 50,000. Mr. Sam Cherian was the President of the Club. Dr. M.N. Harindra, who conducted the cochlear implant procedure, was among those who gave the initial donation. Mr. V. Sreenivasa Prasad, then Nanjangud MLA, also gave a donation of Rs. 5,000.

However, the donation from Dr. S.N. Mothi, MD (Paediatrics) of Kid-Care Clinic, was accompanied by an interesting covering letter offering his free paediatric consultation to Ganesh till age 18 and counselling to the parents. And then a note titled "Angels At Work." Let me quote him:

"The story of a hearing impaired child Ganesh needing a cochlear implant costing more than Rs. 6 lakh touched many readers and generated a response in the form of financial contributions and prayers. This creates an opportunity for this child to hear the caring whispers of his mother and every sound thereafter.

This happened because there were 'Angels at Work' in the form of Mr. K.B. Ganapathy of Star of Mysore, Rtn. Vasudev Bhat and friends."

Thank you Dr. Mothi. I had preserved your note because you considered me and my friend as 'Angels at Work.' Pardon me for my immodesty.

But the work of the Angels did not really finish in 2012.

As I mentioned above, now after 10 years, these 'Angels at work' have been called upon to 'work' again by the providence. It was then I approached the 'Guardian Angel' for help. And help came, as I mentioned, from Dr. Jagannath Shenoy.

A few days later I happened to meet Mr. Sam Cherian, Founder-Chairman of Schevaran Laboratories Pvt. Ltd., at the 49th anniversary function of Kamakshi Hospital and in passing, I mentioned of Dr. Jagannath Shenoy's donation and about his (Sam) 'Save a Child' project in association with Kamakshi Hospital etc. Before I could finish, Sam was telling me, 'Ganapathy I will give Rs. 50,000 for the child' even as we both were rushed to the luncheon area. I forgot about his offer. After three days I get a message from Sam on Sunday 3rd July, 2022: "Good morning Sir, please let me know in whose name and where to send Rs. 50,000 cheque for the deaf child."

Thanks Sam. Believe me, I have experience of reminding donors of their promise but not of a person reminding me in this way!

Well, the real Angels at work are people like Dr. Jagannath Shenoy, Mr. Sam Cherian and Dr. Mothi, who also sent Rs. 10,000, NOT K.B. Ganapathy and Vasudev Bhat. We are only foot-soldiers of these Angels. In truth, all those who contributed for this cause in 2012, are also Angels. After all, giving is a divine quality. Which is why it is said that if you have enough for yourself then there is more pleasure in giving than in receiving. Mother Teresa said, 'Give till it hurts'. I can't agree with her, though it was said to emphasise the importance of compassion in giving. If the giver gives to the extent of hurting himself, he will soon be in trouble himself. But then, giving is also an act of love. And love presupposes two qualities — Service and Sacrifice. On this premise one can agree with Mother Teresa who said give till it hurts — getting stigmatised like Christ ! Amen.

MCC moots new plan

to collect water bill dues

The total pending water bills amount to Rs. 220 crore and of that, Rs. 146 crore is the actual bill amount while Rs. 74 crore is the interest amount. "Of the Rs. 146 crore, Rs. 108 crore has to be paid by domestic consumers. From July 15, we are launching a special bill payment plan where the interest on the water bill will be kept in abeyance for six months if the bill is paid in one go. Compound interest or additional interest will not be levied till the six-month period," the Mayor said.

"The interest amount will be in abeyance till the Government decides on the MCC's proposal to waive the Rs. 74 crore interest. The MCC has written to the Government for the waiver and the decision is awaited. If the Government decides to waive the interest, it is well and good and if it decides against it, we will wait for the order on collecting the interest," Sunanda Palanetra explained.

This facility is available for only those who pay the pending bill in one go and only for domestic connections and not for commercial and industrial connections, she added.

For example, as per the MCC's plan, if a resident has a pending bill of Rs. 10,000 and Rs. 3,000 interest on that amount, he can pay the Rs. 10,000 in one go and the MCC will keep the Rs. 3,000 interest in abeyance for six months and compound interest or additional interest will not be levied on it. Later the interest will be levied as per the Government's decision.

MCC Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy said that on average, over 2,000 to 2,500 new water connections are being provided every month in all areas. "Those who have faulty water meters must rectify the same and buy new ones. The MCC is not responsible for it and in case such meters are detected a three-time penalty on the water bill is being levied," he said.

Mayor grant of Rs. 50 lakh

A Mayoral grant of Rs. 50 lakh will be given to each of the 65 MCC wards and the decision on spending the amount will be with the Ward Corporator. "Rs. 50 lakh each will be given to each Ward and the money can be spent at the discretion of the Corporator," the Mayor said.

This decision has been taken as in the past, several Corporators complained that the Mayoral grant has been disbursed selectively and only two Assembly Constituencies got the lion's share and several Wards have not received any money despite being in need.

Hindutva propagandists must be introduced to Basavanna's philosophies: Writer

'Mahatmara Charitamrutha' book released

Mysuru, July 12 (SPN&DM)- Maintaining that Hindutva propagandists should be educated on Basavanna's philosophies, Kottur-based renowned writer K. Veerabhadrappa (Kum. Veerabhadrappa) opined that anarchy and inequality will prevail in the society if Basavanna's philosophies, practices and Vachanas are not followed.

He was speaking after releasing Athani's Sri Motagimutt Seer Sri Prabhu Channabasava Swamiji's (Athaneesha) work titled 'Mahatmara Charitamrutha' at a programme organised by Mysuru City and District Unit of Akhila Bharatha Sharana Sahitya Parishat at Rajendra Bhavan on M.G. Road here on Saturday.

Pointing out that Basavanna, the 12th century social reformer, is very important for us, Veerabhadrappa noted that we could not have grew up to this level, but for Basavanna. As such, Basavanna remains our all time leader, he said.

Bemoaning that we are living in a society where people who take their pets in their four-wheelers hesitate to give a drop to disadvantaged people, he regretted that though physical untouchability has decreased over the years, mental untouchability is still strong in our society. Contending that there will be no progress in our country as long as there is politics in the name of God, Veerabhadrappa highlighted how Basavanna took great pains to reform the society.

Announcing that he would prefer raising 'Jai Basavesha' slogans instead of 'Jai Sriram' slogans, he said that 'Vachana Sahitya', which was scripted by Sharanas who opposed Manushastra, is his Constitution. The 12th century Vachana Sahitya gave a new turn to Kannada literature, he added.

Continuing, Veerabhadrappa said that Mutts have been providing education, food and shelter to lakhs of people in the State. "I became a writer because of my stay in the Mutt during my education. Otherwise I would have remained as something else," he said adding that the book 'Mahatmara Charitamrutha' is not a simply read book, but a book that has to be practiced and followed. Kannada Book Authority Chairman Dr. M.N. Nandeesh Hanche, who spoke, said that the book features detailed profiles of 216 saints and seers who have steered the society in the right direction.

Suttur Mutt Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji graced the occasion. Bengaluru's Ramanashree Group's Chairman S. Shadakshari, writer Shankar Devanur, Akhila Bharatha Sharana Sahitya Parishat Mysuru President M.G. Sadanandaiah and others were present. The programme also featured a musical presentation by Vijayapura's Veeresh Vali and team.

A book on Dr. Shivarathri Rajendra Swamiji

Mysuru, July 12 (SPN&DM)- 'Shivarathri Rajendra Vaibhava', a book on late Suttur Mutt Seer Dr. Sri Shivarathri Rajendra Swamiji was released at a programme organised as part of the 29th anniversary of Shivarathreeshwara Mahila Samaja at JSS Women's College in Saraswathipuram here on Saturday.

Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister J.C. Madhuswamy was the chief guest.

Speaking on the occasion, Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji said that Minister Madhuswamy is a good law-maker who has the uncanny knack to silence even his opponents through his words or remarks. The Minister is a model to others when it comes to Parliamentary debates, he added.

Pointing out that Ayurveda Medical Practitioner Dr. M.G.R. Urs is engaged in social service for years, the Seer said that he has been promoting and popularising Chutuku Sahitya (Limericks) through Chutuku Sahitya Parishat. He also lauded Dr. Urs for organising a dance-drama portraying the life of Dr. Shivarathri Rajendra Swamiji, marking the occasion. The dance-drama was performed by artistes of Dr. T.P. Halappa Gouda Academy.

A one-minute silence was observed as a mark of respect to departed former Japanese Prime Minister Shinzo Abe, who was shot dead by a miscreant during an election rally in Japan a couple of days ago. In-charge Mayor Sunanda Palanetra, Chutuku Sahitya Parishat President and former MLC Thontadarya, Dr. M.G.R. Urs, Dansuese V. Malini, District Kannada Sahitya Parishat President Maddikere Gopal, Shivarathreeshwara Mahila Samaja President Rathna Halappagowda and others were present.

WORD OF THE DAY

Debunk

Pronunciation: dee-BUNK.
Meaning: To debunk something, such as a story, theory, or idea, is to show or expose the falseness of it.
Origin: To debunk something is to take the bunk out of it—that bunk being "nonsense." (Bunk is short for the synonymous bunkum, which has political origins.) Debunk has been in use since at least the 1920s, and it contrasts with synonyms like disprove and rebut by suggesting that something is not merely untrue but is also a sham—a trick meant to deceive. One can simply disprove a myth, but if it is debunked, the implication is that the myth was a grossly exaggerated or foolish claim.
Example: "The idea that dogs spend every waking moment trying to usurp their human masters and become 'the alpha' in the house ... [was] first introduced by a wolf ecologist in the mid-20th Century, [and] was later debunked after ecologists realised that the original observations of dominance behaviours were based on captive wolves (unrelated to one another) kept in a zoo enclosure."

THE ODD WORD

Darraign

To vindicate; to justify or prove.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Dash to pieces

Meaning: Break into fragments.
Origin: Many English phrases are found first in either the Bible or the works of Shakespeare. 'Dash to pieces' appears to be a close run race between the two. The Coverdale Bible, 1535, in Psalms 2.9, has: Thou shalt rule them with a rodde of yron, and breake them in peces like an erthen vessell.
'Dash' was a commonly used verb in the 16th century meaning variously 'crash up against', as in raining splashing against a window, or 'destroy utterly'. Shakespeare brought both meanings together in the first known usage of 'dash to pieces', in The Tempest, 1610: A brave vessel, who had, no doubt, some noble creature in her, dash'd all to pieces. We no longer use 'dash' to mean break into pieces.
The biblical scholars who in 1610 were working on the King James Bible (1611) converted Coverdale's 'breake them in peces' to 'dash them in pieces': Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel. There may yet be a steward's enquiry but this one does seem to be 'coined by Shakespeare' - by a nose.
